WHEREAS, The Lipan Apaches have a culture rich in tradition and a heritage that has been handed down from one generation to the next; they have maintained their sense of community from the days of treaties until the present day despite social, economic, and military instabilities; and

WHEREAS, The Lipan Apaches have faithfully served when called upon to bear arms in protection of their fellow Texans and Americans; the tribe honors many veterans who served as scouts in World War I, World War II, Korea, Vietnam, and Iraq; the Tribal Shield of the Lipan Apache proudly flies beside the American flag in Afghanistan, where one of the Lipan Apache Tribe of Texas warriors is serving on his second tour; and

WHEREAS, The Lipan Apaches of today continue to serve their communities as police officers, ministers, nurses, and school teachers and in many other occupations that speak to integrity and fidelity of service to others; and
